Teaching Kids Through Edutainment

Visa understands that teaching consumers about money through “edutainment” or “gamification” is an effective means of demystifying a complicated subject by using the compelling and familiar medium of video games to learn while having fun. As part of Practical Money Skills, Visa created a suite of educational games – just one component of the resources Visa offers to help teach people of all ages about personal finance management.

About Financial Football

A new version of the NFL-themed Financial Football financial literacy video game created by Visa Inc. was released in the fall of 2018. The new trivia-style game features all 32 NFL teams, 3D graphics, new content and gameplay, and opportunities with audibles, blitzes and game-breaking plays. Players can earn advantages by answering all four easy, medium or hard questions on the play calling sheet covering a range of topics including saving, identity theft, credit and life events. The game is available as a free iOS or Android app and can be downloaded for MacOS or Windows at <https://financialfootball.com/downloads>.

Financial Football puts individuals’ fiscal knowledge to the test in a game that combines the structure and rules of the NFL with financial education questions of varying difficulty. The game challenges players to answer multiple-choice and true and false money management questions correctly to advance down the field for a chance to score.

The engaging, interactive game is available in English and Spanish and can be downloaded as a free iOS or Android app, and can be downloaded as a MacOS or Windows game at www.financialfootball.com. The online version of Financial Football has been played more than 12 million times.

The game also includes companion classroom lesson modules for teachers who want to expand and reinforce greater financial learning. Each module features:

- Lesson plans for educators with a narrative overview of the concepts to be taught.
- Goals and objectives describing the expected learning outcomes of the module.
- Teaching notes to help educators structure their lessons.
- A discussion section for teachers and students to talk through how the information learned would apply to real-life situations.
- Written exercises to be used in groups or as an assessment of student learning.

Visa has partnered with 49 state governments and the District of Columbia to co-brand and distribute free copies of Financial Football to every public middle and high school in those states, including:

Alabama, Alaska, Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming.
